MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

1. Murrey Marder's purpose, he said, was to "bounce some ideas off" some of our people, possibly George Carver. I told him I would try to set up a background briefing within the next few days.
2. He said he had spent some time with the North Vietnam negotiators. He recognized that you must be very busy and he appreciated the call.

Joseph C. Goodwin
Assistant to the Director
